Safe-Harbor Statement

This presentation may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements relate to, among others, expectations of the business environment in which the Company operates, projections of future performance, perceived opportunities in the market, potential future credit experience, and statements regarding the Company's mission and vision. These forward-looking statements are based upon current management expectations, and may, therefore, involve risks and uncertainties. The Company's actual results, performance, or achievements may differ materially from those suggested, expressed, or implied by forward-looking statements due to a wide range of factors including, but not limited to, the general business environment, interest rates, the California real estate market, competitive conditions between banks and non-bank financial services providers, regulatory changes, and other risks detailed in the Company's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003. Forward-looking statements are effective only as of the date that they are made and the Company assumes no obligation to update this information.

Attractive Inland Empire Market

- Composed of San Bernardino and Riverside Counties
- Second largest PMSA in California with 3.5 million people at January 1, 2003
- One of the few areas in the country that has enjoyed continued job growth through the nationwide slump
- Private sector job growth averaged 5.7% per year from December 1996 through December 2000 compared to 3.5% for all of California
- Has experienced a 45% increase in manufacturing jobs since 1990, compared to a 20% decline statewide and a 40% decline in Los Angeles County
- While the Inland Empire now accounts for only 17% of Southern California's population, it has consistently accounted for over 30% of new home sales and construction; nearly 50% in the last two years
- Strong growth in the western part, adjacent to Los Angeles and Orange Counties, with ample land available for future growth
